

Dr. Mary J Warrell (née PRENTICE) MB BS, FRCP, FRCPE, FRCPath

Senior Researcher, Oxford Vaccine Group, University of Oxford
Centre for Clinical Vaccinology & Tropical Medicine

Education and Qualifications:

1965-71 St. Mary's Hospital Medical School, London.
1971 MB,BS (Lond).
1974 Member Royal College Physicians (London).
1990 Fellow Royal College Pathologists
2011 Fellow Royal College Physicians (Edinburgh)
2013 Fellow Royal College Physicians (London)
1997-2015 GMC Specialist Register, accredited in Medical microbiology/ virology

Appointments:

1971 – 1973 Junior Physician posts in London hospitals.
1973-1975 Medical Research Council Scientific Staff, Division of Communicable Diseases, Clinical Research Centre, Northwick Park Hospital Harrow.
1976-1979 Senior Registrar in Clinical Virology, Churchill Hospital, Oxford.
1979-1986 Wellcome Research Fellow at The Sir William Dunn School of Pathology, University of Oxford and Consultant at the Hospital for Tropical Diseases, Faculty of Tropical Medicine, Mahidol University, Bangkok.
Deputy Director, Wellcome-Mahidol University Oxford Tropical Medicine Research Programme.
1982-1986 Honorary Lecturer, Department of Clinical Tropical Medicine, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine.
1986-1987 Wellcome Research Fellow at the Sir William Dunn School of Pathology, University of Oxford.
1990 -1996 Occasional Locum Consultant in Clinical Virology, John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford.
1998 -1999 Visiting Scientist, Sir William Dunn School of Pathology, University of Oxford.

2004 Jan- present Honorary Senior Researcher, Oxford Vaccine Group, University of Oxford, Centre for Clinical Vaccinology and Tropical Medicine, Oxford.
2012- 2016 Chairman of the University of Oxford Tropical Research Ethical Committee.

Professional Activities:

1989-2009 Annual lecturer for DTM&H / MSc courses, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine.
1994-1995 Member of BMA Board of Science & Education working party, to review animal quarantine regulations, and to produce The BMA Guide to Rabies. 1995

2003 The Department of Health Advisory Committee on Dangerous Pathogens
Working Group on European bat lyssavirus in the UK.
1996- 2009 World Health Organization member of Rabies Expert Group Consultations on Rabies.
2005, 2010 Advisor to the UK Dept of Health, Joint Committee Vaccines and Immunisation.
2016-2017 Member of Strategic Advisory Group of Experts (SAGE) Working Group on rabies vaccines and rabies immunoglobulins, Geneva.

Publications:

Journals: > 80 1970 – 2017. Most recently:

Warrell M, Warrell D, Tarantola A. The Imperative of Palliation in the Management of Rabies
Encephalomyelitis. Trop. Med Infect Dis 2017: 2(4), 52.

Book chapters: > 30.